NEW HAVEN PAPER COMMENDS SECOND CHURCH'S CHOICE

Rev. H. J. Wyckoff Has Done Work
There With Remarkable Success.

Regarding the vote of the Second Congregational church to extend a call to Rev. H. J. Wyckoff of New Haven, The New Haven Times-Leader says:
The people of the Second Congregational church of Norwich Conn. will be heartily congratulated by all who know Rev. H. J. Wyckoff, who has decided to accept a unanimous call to become the pastor of that church. As assistant pastor of United church in this city, Mr. Wyckoff has won a host of friends and demonstrated unusual ability as a preacher and pastor. All who know him here regret that he is not to continue to reside and work in this city, and all wish him a rich measure of success in his new field of effort.

The Norwich church is said to have a membership of 375, a very considerable endowment, and contains an active ble endowment, and contains an active become the pastor of the services were conducted by Rev. W. F. Whits of the Ledyard Center Congregational church. Miss Grace Chapman sang Nearer, My God, to Thee. There were a number of foral forms. The bearers were Francis O. Allen of this city, Merton Allen of Staten Island, Albert James and Avery Main of Ledyard. Burlul was in the Avery cemetery in Ledyard, where a committal service was read. Church & Allen had charge of the arrangements.

Mr. Allen's death occurred Friday morning after an illness of several weeks. He was born in Ledyard 87 years ago and spent all his life in that town, where he was a farmer, who was held in high regard. He was a member of Company D, Twenty-sixth regiment, in the Civil war, serving under Capt. S. T. Huntoon of this city, and was a member of Sedgwick post, No. I, G. A. R. He was twice married, his

The Norwich church is said to have a membership of 275, a very considerable endowment, and contains an active and interested membership whose possibilities are very interesting in that community, with its peculiar combination of old New England family life and new population recruited for its large manufacturing interests.

Norwich is certainly an attractive field and the people of the Second Congregational church have chosen a pastor who will treasure its traditions.

Rev. C. A. Northrop spoke at the Sheltering Arms on Sunday afternoon on Faith. He said faith is putting one-self into the hand of God to be led by him. It opens out greater faith and character, enabling us to see what others cannot and containing in itself the solution of all the problems that we find in this world. There is enough in our faith to give us all we need, if we will only find it, and at last an abundant entrance into the kingdom. Assisting in the service were Miss Louise H. Pratt and Mr. and Mrs. F.
